

TULIP SHOW.—The United Florists of Leeds held their annual show of tulips on Tuesday the 23rd of May, at the house of Mr. Dobbings, the Golden Cock Inn, Kirkgate. It was one of the most splendid tulip exhibitions ever held in Leeds. The stage, when arranged, presented a most gaudy and imposing spectacle, and the prizes down to the last in each class were contested with a spirit that did honour to the competitors. The judges were Mr. B. Ely, of Rothwell, Mr. J. Rhodes, of Woodhouse, and Mr. T. Benn, of Wortley, who, in their arduous duties, acquitted themselves to the entire satisfaction of the competitors.
